"School's out for summer..."

There was so much going on this past summer. Some students hustled to the beach, while others vacationed with their families. Some of the hottest vacation spots of the summer season included Wildwood, Florida, Long Beach Island, Cape May, and Maryland.

Some students were also found at the Springfield Pool or in friends' pools.

"I went down to Seaside Heights a few times with my friends," commented sophomore Darcy Ginsberg.

Although most of us relaxed and vacationed, many JDHS students weren't so fortunate. Many had to work to support their lavish lifestyles.

"I worked at a Law Firm in Springfield," said senior Jodi Santo.

Other than working in offices, many students served as camp counselors at the local JCC this past summer, while others worked as cashiers, lifeguards, and baby sitters.

Summertime can be a blast, but unfortunately it flies by too quickly. Once again, September rolls around and back to school we go!

HALL DECORATING & PEP RALLY

"Let's Get Loud"

Spirit Week, similar to years in the past, was filled with many competitive events and close calls. The two events that stirred up the most competition amongst students were the Pep Rally and Hall Decorating.

The outcome of this year's Hall Decorating competition was truly unexpected. The sophomores came in first place with Sophomore Celebrations, which encompassed all the holidays that occur during a calendar year. The seniors who decorated their hallway with sea creatures, were content when awarded second place with 2001 Leagues Under the Sea, although they had hoped to win. The juniors came in third place with Junior Olympics, and the freshmen were, unfortunately, disqualified for purchasing their decorations for Happy Birthday, as opposed to creating them on their own. Well, they now know for next year.

Later that same afternoon, after the judging of the hallways, students filled the gymnasium for the Pep Rally to cheer on their fall sports teams. Senior Christy Delloiacono, wearing white face paint and a cape on her back, announced the fall athletes as they made their way towards the center of the gymnasium.

Judging the student decorations, spirit, and excitement during the pep rally was definitely a difficult task for the judges. The seniors and juniors were neck-and-neck in competition; however, the outstanding decorations and abundant cheers helped the seniors to pull through towards victory. This made up for their loss to the sophomores in the Hall Decoration competition.

Although they did not win either competition, the freshmen did demonstrate great enthusiasm. Freshman Corey Falkin explains, "Now that I've seen the pep rally and know what to expect, next year I'm going to be bouncing off the walls!"

Right: Claudia and Jodi, our senior princesses, grace us with their royal presence at the pep rally.

HALLOWEEN

This Halloween, even though the seniors chose not to do the usual haunted house, the spirit of Halloween was still very noticeable. While it seemed as though not as many people chose to dress up as in previous years, walking through the halls, there were still many students who chose to come to school in costume. As always, most students dressed up in groups with their friends. Some freshmen opted to come as football players, but most of them decided to dress up as cats. The sophomores wore outfits from the 80's, and the juniors wore an assortment of different costumes. The seniors decided against the traditional senior cats, and were Playboy bunnies instead. Some teachers also dressed up for the occasion, showing their Halloween spirit as well. As you can see, Halloween at Dayton this year was quite a "thrilling" event!

STYLE & FASHION

Versace, Armani, Prada, Gucci are some of the designers we wear here at JDHS - some real, some fake! "The hallways here serve as runways for JDHS students," comments Claudia Petrilli. Other than those wearing the common tee shirt and jeans, the majority of students at Dayton share the same sense of fashion...styles seen in Cosmo girl.

PROM 2000

"These are the Moments..."

Last minute hair appointments, broken tips, wrong colored corsages, and baseball games didn't stop seniors and juniors from making it to Prom 2000 on time. For most of the girls, it was an unforgettable night that had been planned for months. But for the guys, it was a chance to see their beautiful dates looking better than ever.

The countless hours spent searching for the perfect dresses, tuxedos, accessories, hair dos, and make-up artist made both the guys and girls glamorous.

The photographer started the evening with pictures and the waiters followed with the hors d'oeuvres. After the D.J. played the first song, people couldn't stop dancing. Not only was it a marvelous sight, but the students were really enjoying themselves.

Before the night began to wind down, the juniors and seniors were proud to find out that the prom prince and princess were Eugene Silva and Jenn Cheung. And then the moment came that everyone had waited for the announcement of the senior class king and queen. The winners were Justin Katz and Jessica Lau.

When the prom finally came to an end, and the music began to subside, the party didn't stop. Most students boarded into their limos to continue the party in the city. Prom 2000 was a huge success and will never be forgotten by the attendees!

HOMEcoming

Homecoming 2000, the winding down of spirit week, was an amazing night. From decorations to dancing til' we dropped, everyone seemed to really enjoy themselves. All this fun led up to... the suspense of who would win the titles of Prince, Princess, King, and Queen!

After the votes were calculated, the royal court was announced. The prince and princess for the freshmen class were Frankie Miceli and Jill Kurzner. Anthony Rodriguez and Darcy Ginsberg won for the sophomore class, and Stefano Sarricino and Melissa LoSchiavo won for the junior class. After the excitement of the crowd settled down, the Senior King and Queen were then announced. The beautiful Dana Rutkowski and the studly Russell Haywood were honored as this year's Homecoming King and Queen. After being nominated for the past three years, and not winning, Dana was surprised to receive this title.

At the end of the night, Senior Superlatives were announced, which also caught many winners, and non-winners, by surprise. "It's an honor to be recognized by your peers," said Chad Freundlich, who won best dressed and most talkative. Overall, the homecoming dance turned out to be a success.

HANG OUTS

The hot spots in Springfield consist of Dunkin' Donuts, Bennigans, Amoco, 7-11, and UPD's (Union Plaza Diner). If you're driving around Springfield and you're wondering where the party is at, just stop in one of these places and you're bound to run into JDHS students.

During the week, students relax and occasionally go out with their friends. But when the weekends come, the students of JDHS party all night. Whether it's at a house party or a night around the town, everyone is always having fun. So if you're not going to the city next weekend, come to Springfield and chill where the party is at.

Spirit Week & Interclass Games

"Smells Like Teen Spirit"

While it may seem as though Dayton is not outrageously school spirited, there are certain times of the year when Dayton's students show their true colors (orange and blue of course). One of these times is during our school's spirit week. During spirit week, students have the opportunity to dress up in certain styles, decorate their own hallways, and cheer their classmates onto victory during interclass games. This year, the students dressed up in a variety of different styles Monday through Wednesday. On Thursday, hall decorating took place. The freshmen chose to do a birthday party, the "sophomore celebration" was the theme for their hallway, the juniors replicated the Olympics, and the seniors topped it off with "2001 leagues under the sea". Finishing off the week was interclass games, made up of several events including a pie eating contest, tug of war, basketball free throw, and a volleyball tournament. The seniors came in first, with the juniors coming in close behind, followed by the sophomores and the freshmen. When they want to be, Dayton's students are certainly filled with school spirit!

LOCKERS "Slam..."

Lockers. Where would we be without them? Most of us don't realize how important our lockers really are. All of our belongings, such as books, notebooks, and our lunches, would have to be carried around with us all day, every day. Our lockers, here at Dayton, serve as a home away from home, no matter how inconvenient they are to get to with regards to getting to class.

"I hate that my locker is all the way upstairs and most of my classes are downstairs," complains sophomore Amie Faigenbaum.

Although not everyone can be completely content with the location of his or her locker, we all appreciate the little space we have to store our personal belongings. "If we didn't have locker space, I'd have so many extra books and things to carry from one class to another," says Senior Vinny Chin.

The locker space students are provided with make the trip from one class to another less trying. Each locker has one shelf on top, to store a lunch perhaps, and three hooks to hang a jacket and/or bag. In addition, they are made of metal, so Dayton students can hang up pictures of their friends using decorative magnets.

Not only do lockers serve as efficient means of storage, but students use their locker location as meeting places before and after classes to gossip. This helps students to fulfill the most important aspect of their school day.

Above: Lindsey smiles as she thinks, "I can't seem to find anything."

Sports and homework fill only a third of the time students spend after school. The students that are not found watching reruns of Beverly Hills 90210, Dawson's Creek, or Smack Down, can be found working at Fossil, in an office, or coaching a recreational team.

Our students know that the best part of having a job is getting paid. Experiences, meeting new people, and having something to do, are positive aspects as well. However, having a job does have its down side: minimum wage, long hours, and little time to hang out with friends.

Many of the students at Dayton will not have enough time to continue their jobs after high school, but it serves them purpose now. Whether students save money for gas, CDs, clothing, or college, Dayton students know that having a job is essential to one's vitality.

LUNCH

"Just Eat It..."

For thirty minutes of the school day, Dayton students head to the cafeteria to catch up with friends and make up for the breakfast they skipped while rushing out the door at 7:30 a.m. "It's the first time I get to eat since waking up...from calculus class," jokes senior Mark Tratenberg. Whether we buy a lunch, bring a lunch, or just beg our friends for a half-eaten bag of Doritos, everyone agrees that lunch is the best part of the day. "It's a great time to socialize with friends," says senior Michelle Barone. At lunch tables, Dayton students joke around with friends, work on last night's homework, and talk about everything from TV shows to new styles of clothes.

AFTER HOURS

"Party Up"

Believe it or not, after a full week of school, homework, and after school jobs, Dayton students still manage to maintain active social lives. Meeting up with everyone after school and on the weekends allows students to have fun with friends and catch up on the latest gossip.

Finding Dayton students after hours is not a difficult task. If you're hungry, you can stop by the Union Plaza Diner or Bennigan's on Route 22 where you'll stumble upon good food and Dayton students. After dinner, or a late night snack, you can stop by Amoco to fill your tank, and meet up with friends. Others choose to go to the city, go to the movies, or go to local parties.

Although the weekend seems too short, one thing is certain, Dayton students have managed to perfect the art of locating and hanging out with friends and making use of their after hours hang out time.

CARS

"Get your roll on..."

A car is essential for upperclassmen. Unless you like hanging out at 7-Eleven with your mom and rolling up to school in an '89 Caravan, you'll want your own set of wheels. The majority of cars in the student parking lot are small or midsize coupes and sedans. Camrys, Civics, Accords, Maximas, Corollas, and Cavaliers are all commonly driven by teenagers. A handful of students get stuck with their mothers' Buicks while others demand horsepower and park their sports cars diagonally in the back row. Joining the Supra and the Camaros are supped up automobiles with L.E.D. lights, tints, and rims. These drivers have other costly add-ons and display them without worrying about scratches and dings. It's obvious juniors and seniors love their cars and won't leave home without 'em!

Rewinding THE TIMES

"This is the time to remember, these are the days to hold on to, cause we won't although we'll want to..."

Four years ago, approximately one hundred timid freshmen sat in Halsey Auditorium listening to the welcome speech of Principal Serson, already contemplating a devious senior prank. As time progressed, the senior class managed to grow physically, socially, and emotionally into responsible young adults, ready to face the challenges of the future. Many of our most cherished memories were created during these years. As a diverse student body, we will continue to grow from our experiences at Dayton. Regardless of what the future holds, we will all remember those who have touched us in some way and those who have shaped us into becoming who we are today. As we close the door to this stage of our lives, and begin to embark on our next journey, there are a few things to always keep in mind: follow your dreams, reach for the stars, and never compromise your ideals.

Revisiting THE TIMES

"It's a hard knock life ..."

The underclassmen population at Dayton consist of approximately 300 plus students, which without we would have no student body. Because Dayton is a small school, students from all grade levels frequently interact with each other on a daily basis. For some, this is a good thing; for others, this could be bad. Being an underclassmen is not always a scary experience. Perhaps at first it is, but as you become familiar with the school and the teachers, and begin to make friends, being in high school seems less intimidating. That senior who seemed larger than life to you when you arrived to school on the first day of freshman year, or sophomore year, or even junior year, may very well end up being your closest friend. From the seniors to the underclassmen... enjoy your days in high school and use your time wisely, for in a blink of an eye it will all be over.

"ABC...Easy as 123..."

The faculty, administrators, and support staff at Jonathan Dayton High School juggle various tasks on a daily basis for which they should be commended. They not only motivate and encourage within a classroom setting, but many of JDHS's faculty members serve as advisors and coaches for many extracurricular activities, clubs, and sports. For your time and dedication to this school and to its students, we thank you all.

WHAT IS YOUR MOST MEMORABLE MOMENT OF THE 2000-2001 SCHOOL YEAR?

After months of hard work, watching the little actors and actresses of Dayton become excited about and satisfied with their dramatic performances in Rumors and Memories Ignited.

When Governor Whitman visited the high school to acknowledge the efforts of our Volunteer Club, working with the senior citizen community.

In November, to celebrate National French Week, the AP French class prepared a French lunch. All who attended the lunch enjoyed the delicious food.

Teaching the seniors their very last health education classes before graduating. It's sad to see them leave.

Reminding THE TIMES

"All I want to do is have some fun..."

School is not all about academics. Approximately 85 to 90 percent of all students at Jonathan Dayton High School participate in extracurricular activities, whether it be a sport, club, or organized event. Participating in clubs and events allows students to socialize with friends while being productive at the same time. Many of Dayton's clubs and events help to united the student body.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE TEAM

"Help, I need somebody..."

The Emergency Response team was initiated by Dr. Serson two years ago. The club, now lead by Mr. Bachenheimer and assisted by Ms. Guida, has over 15 members. This first club of its kind in the nation was started to insure that there were trained individuals capable of handling emergency situations within a school.

All the participants of the ERT have been certified in CPR and standard First Aid. Each member carries 2 kits at all times during school hours. The personal kit contains a CPR mask, barrier devices, and bleeding devices. The jump kit is the other kit each member must carry which includes several ice packs and bandages, glucose, and blood pressure cuffs.

The captain of the Emergency Response Team is John Laurencelle, supported by the first lieutenant Pam Bookbinder who is in charge of checking and distributing the radios. The ERT's sergeant is Anna Batler who is in charge of distributing medical supplies, and Grace Alfano is the administrative officer who keeps track of the emergencies that occur during the school year. This team is a great asset to our students and staff.

Above: When there's an emergency, we can count on Mr. Bachenheimer and the ERT officers to provide assistance.

TELEVISION STUDIO

"I want my MTV..."

The excitement of the JDHS morning announcements stems from all the energy mustered together during the pre-show preparations for five minutes of air time," explains a TV crew member.

At the beginning of the year, both skeptical students and teachers were unsure if the "live TV morning announcements" would actually air. However, one morning during the second week of September, Dayton students and teachers were shocked to have the newly installed TV's turn on automatically, displaying images of Dayton's first live morning announcements.

Under the supervision of Mr. A, the advanced TV students volunteer hours and hours of their time to produce the morning announcements on a daily basis. Dayton's students and teachers rely on the morning announcements to acquire the day's, or the week's, school and world related information. "We've broken a lot of ground," explains Mr. A, "and many should be commended for their dedication."

Although the Floor Manager, Joe Voorhees, and Director, Mike Puorro, will be moving on to bigger and better things, some unclassmen anticipate the opportunity and challenge of running the live announcements next year.

DAYTON DAWG PRINT

"Extra, Extra, Read all about it!"

Working with a tough budget and small staff, the editors of Dayton's student paper, the Dawg Print, dedicate their time to put out several issues a year. Co-editors in cheif Lillian Fasman and Christina Florio use their free periods to lay out articles and scan pictures into Quark, the software used to publish the newspaper. Editors Josh Fraenkel (Art), Andrew Harris (News), and Marina Zelter (Features), oversee writers, photographers, and artists to ensure assignments are handed out. Business manager Kshitija Sharma makes phone calls and solicits patrons via mail. Finally, the production of the Dawg Print could not be possible without the orginzation and direction of Mrs. Rooney-Kuhn, Newspaper Advisor.

PEP BAND

"Music makes the people come together..."

You know that music you hear at the Dayton football games? Ever wonder who it is making that music? It's the Jonathan Dayton Pep Band, a relatively small group of students who, while dodging the bees on warm days, are showing off their musical talents for the sole entertainment of the loyal Dayton fans.

This year's pep band enjoyed an increase in membership. Along with advisor Ron Slate, returning members Alex Bellous, Alex Garlen, Ben Maslow, Harry Marks, Jeremy Salow, and Keith Dworkin helped spur the crowds at the Dayton home games. New among the squad is Andrew Marks. Among the songs performed by the pep band are "Eye of the Tiger," "We Will Rock You," and "The Hey Song," a fan favorite.

While it is unfortunate that the band's musical proficiency was unable to aid the football team in its endeavors, it was able to have a successful year, bee stings aside.

ALTERNATIVES CLUB

"Drug Free America"

Jonathan Dayton's Alternatives Club is led by Mr. DellaPia and Ms. Roberts and consists of approximately 25-30 members. The purpose of this club is to promote drug and alcohol free events. "I think it's really important to be a part of something that promotes such a good anti-drug message," states Vickie Bingle, a member of the Alternatives Club.

Back in October, the club sponsored Dayton's yearly bonfire, a drug free event in which all students are welcome. The event consisted of cheerleaders, football players, firemen, students, food, music, and of course a huge bonfire. Every year students always seem to enjoy this occasion because it brings everybody together without the presence of drugs and alcohol. The Alternatives club also takes their yearly trip to Nayoda Hills in which the members participate in many different types of obstacles, such as rope courses, in order to gain trust in their fellow peers.

Another task members of the club participate in is a visit to the middle school in order to serve as role models to the younger children. The members inform the middle school children of the dangers of drugs and alcohol and give them a chance to ask any questions they have concerning these issues. Jonathan Dayton's Alternatives Club has, and always will, set a good example to others. The members of this club deliver important messages to others; one can have fun without the presence of drugs and alcohol.

Right (top): The Alternatives Club, sets an example for others by saying "No To Drugs."

PEER LEADERSHIP

"The Leader of the Pack..."

Where would one find many of our school's role models and most dedicated students? In a peer leadership meeting, of course! This club, led by Mrs. Frese and Mrs. Signa, was started about nine years ago. Peer leadership is made up of thirty to forty juniors and seniors.

To become a peer leader one must apply at the end of his or her sophomore or junior year. Peer leaders serve as role models for other students and their main goal is to assist underclassmen and help them to feel more comfortable at our school.

The peer leaders take part in many activities such as freshman fun night, freshman orientation, and many other activities in order to help unite all students from grades nine through twelve. In order to prepare for those events, the peer leaders have numerous training sessions with professionals, have many meetings, and assemblies to help prepare them for up-coming school events.

When asked how it feels to be chosen as a peer leader, Colby Tiss said, "It really makes me feel great. It is a big 'Thank You' for being a good role model. It makes me feel appreciated when I know that I am helping others, and really

Left (top): Mrs. Moskowitz somehow got stuck in the midst of all of these peer leaders....and she just loves it!

SPANISH CLUB

"Living La Vida Loca"

This year's Spanish club was unlike any other. With this year's president, Dana Rutkowski, the Spanish club accomplished many of its goals as far as learning more about the Spanish culture was concerned. Returning as the advisors were Senora Axelrad and Senor Farrell, two very dedicated Spanish teachers at Dayton. They, along with Dana Rutkowski, organized various trips and events, such as Don Quijote and lunch at Don Pepe's. "This years Spanish club was an interesting experience," states an enthusiastic Spanish Club member.

FRENCH CLUB

"C'est La Vie"

This year Dayton's French Club had a great time enjoying many entertaining trips and activities. Led by President Olga Oksov, Vice President Jessica Goldblat, Secretary Jenn Cheung, Treasurer Lawrence Bluestone, and Historian Jen Rego, and Advisor Marlene Moscovitz, members of the French Club learned a lot about the fascinating culture and language. The first trip of this year was to the Metropolitan Museum of Art where members enjoyed the exhibit "Painters of Paris." In February, Mrs. Moscovitz held a festive Mardi Gras party with French food, French music, and fun. Members especially enjoyed the French cuisine. Being in the French club is a great way to explore the culture and have fun with friends.

ITALIAN CLUB

"That's Amore"

The Italian Club was involved in numerous activities throughout the school year with the help of Mr. Fabiano, the advisor. The club engaged in fund raisers, held events for charity, and went on a trip toward the end of the school year. As Mr. Fabiano would say, "The club is an extension of the class."

The other members of the club elected the officers. It was the officers' responsibility to choose a charity and decide which trips to go on. In previous years, the club had cooked for the homeless, held an Italian social, and raised money by creating gift baskets. As long as Mr. Fabiano is in charge, the Italian club will soar to new heights each year.

ISRAELI CULTURE CLUB

"To life, to life, La'chaim..."

After a few years of inactivity, the Israeli Culture Club (ICC) is now one of Dayton's most prominent clubs. When senior Mark Tratenberg was looking through an old Dayton yearbook in Ms. Schlesinger's yearbook class, he accidentally came across a picture of the Israeli Culture Club. After reading the caption next to the picture, which elaborately described the club, he thought it would be interesting and important to bring this club back to Dayton. Another member of the class, Alex Kramers, was deeply interested in bringing the ICC back to Dayton, and was ready to write a proposal to be approved by the Board of Ed. So after Mark and Alex had numerous meetings with Dr. Serson, and created a well-written outline describing the criteria for the club, the Israeli Culture Club was approved.

The advisor of the ICC is none other than Dayton's finest Senora Axelrad. The purpose of the ICC is to discuss the customs and traditions of the Israeli culture whether it involves discussing the Holocaust, or talking about current events in Israel. The ICC has many goals for the year including a trip to the Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C. The members of the ICC also have their eyes set on the famous Israeli cuisine at the Jerusalem Restaurant in Cranford. But the primary reason for having the club in the first place is for students to learn about the past and present of the Israeli culture. With the implementation of the Israeli Culture Club, the important customs and traditions of the Israeli culture will become a major part of the student's lives now and for years to come.

STUDENT AUXILIARY

"Can you tell me how to get, how to get to...JDHS"

Where would Jonathan Dayton High School be without the Student Auxiliary? This club is filled with trustworthy, reliable, and responsible students who volunteer their extra time to assist with school related events. These students are selected at the beginning of their sophomore year on the basis of their personal character, and dependability.

Auxiliary members are responsible for selling tickets at the door, handing out programs, and maintaining order at events such as the Fall Drama, Lip Sync, Talent Show, King of Hearts, Musicals, etc. Senior Dana Rutkowski states, "We volunteer for almost every event that the school needs us for; it's very fun!"

Aside from ushering school related events, the Student Auxiliary guides the 8th grade students around the halls during freshman orientation. We are very thankful for having these dedicated students volunteer their time to help out others.

VOLUNTEER CLUB

"Lean on me, when you're not strong..."

The Volunteer Club is a group of students who enjoy seeing other people "smile." This club hosts a seniorizen breakfast every few months to treat them to a fun-filled breakfast and entertainment.

After the football games in the fall, the club also performed town cleanups to restore Springfield's beauty and during the holiday season, these students wrapped gifts for less fortunate children at Zainey- Brainy.

Finally, once a month a group of juniors and seniors from the club visit the Children's Specialized Hospital Mountainside. The students play music, games, and arts and crafts with the sole purpose of putting smiles on their little faces.

"It makes me feel so good to know I have such a positive impact on the children's lives," says Dana Rutkowski.

Overall, Volunteer club, in its second year of activity, will continue on for many more years making people "smile."

KEY CLUB

"You've got a friend..."

The Key Club is the "key" to success and one of the most popular clubs at Jonathan Dayton. Students meet once a month to discuss what fun volunteer activities they will be doing next. The club recycles for the school a couple of times every month and visited children at the Children's Specialized Hospital in Mountainside. During the holidays, students held a food drive and delivered bags of food to homeless families. "Key Club is a lot of fun- we were able to participate in many activities to help out the community," said senior Jenn Fiorelli.

This year was the first year that the Key Club integrated a chapter, into the middle school's and elementary school's extracurricular program. This enabled the younger students to become involved with volunteering and acts of kindness.

Overall, the Key Club is a great way to spend time helping others.

Above: The board members, with the help of Mr. T., plan their next activity for the members.

Right: Friends Colby and Lindsey, enjoy volunteering their time to better assist the community.

FBLA

"Taking care of business..."

The Future Business Leaders of America, or FBLA as it is called by most, is one of the most popular clubs here at Dayton. Containing approximately 25 members, the FBLA is involved in a variety of different events and activities throughout the year, and is led by advisors Ms. Murray and Ms. McCulley. The FBLA executive board consists of President Vicky Kozlenko, Vice President Lillian Fasman, Secretaries Olga Oksov and Rachel Mandel, Treasurer Mike Lyubavin, District Manager Dara Mirjahangiry, and Dawg House Manager Chad Sundlich, who oversee everything that takes place within the club. FBLA is involved in regional business-related competitions and also run the Dawg House, the popular school store. The club members also raise money for the March of Dimes and also market and sell various items during the course of the school year to help fund the club. FBLA is a valuable club at Dayton because it teaches its members real world business skills and how to interact professionally with others.

FALL DRAMA "Rumors"

"I heard it through the grapevine..."

Neil Simon's comedy, Rumors, performed November 17th and 18th, was this year's Jonathan Dayton fall drama. The show starts off when four couples are invited to the house of Deputy New York City Mayor Charley Brock, and his wife, Myra, for their 10th anniversary. The party never begins because the host has shot himself in the head (it's only a flesh wound) and his wife is missing. Charley's lawyer and his lawyer's wife, Kate and Chris Gorman (Daniel Poltrock and Sara Goldberg), decide to cover up the incident as the other couples arrive. Claire and Lenny Ganz (Monica Schwartz and Joe Iellimo), Cookie and Ernie Cusak (Heather Goldsmith and Manoah Finston), and the fashionably late Cassie and Glen Cooper (Colby Tiss and Josh Fraenkel) arrive and the rumors start to fly. No one can remember who has been told what about whom. Officer Welch (Chris Melendez and Keith Dworkin) and Officer Pudney (Jessica Goldblat) make matters worse by questioning the guests. Hilarity abounds as the couples get more and more crazed trying to sort things out.

Rumors is a very fast paced play; you have to pay attention not to miss anything. Miss Schlesinger directed this year's show.

Senior Jennifer Cheung reports, "I thought the play was very impressive. Everyone on the set was amazing!" All in all it was a wonderful experience for both the cast and the audience.

CONCERT BAND

"Play that funky music..."

Everyday for band class, the band members enter the instrument room, put their instruments together, get their music filled folders, and prepare to play. Band members, instructed by Mr. Slate, rehearse their current songs for upcoming concert events. Participating in band has its advantages because students can relieve stress by playing and are also given the opportunity to play in interesting locations. "After playing in band for seven years, I realize it's extremely fun because I was able to play in Union County College, which is one of the colleges I'm thinking of going to," says Jamie Filippone, a member of the Dayton band. Although band involves continuous practice and dedication, our Dayton band students truly enjoy it.

CHOIR

'Sing,...Sing a song,...sing out loud,...sing out strong...'

This year's choir director is Ms. Boehme who started teaching in 1993, and has been teaching for 8 years. The choir class is thankful to have such a skilled and talented individual as Ms. Boehme direct them in class and at concerts. According to Ms. Boehme, there are no requirements to be a part of the choir. One simply has to enjoy singing and want to perform. Although the choir is smaller than last year, due to the loss of many seniors who had graduated, the members still manage to produce a powerful sound, thanks to the addition of many very talented freshmen. Although we will miss those seniors who are graduating and moving on to bigger and better things, we hope they will return and join us for another round of "The Lord Bless You".

LIP SYNC

"Blame it on the rain...." - Milli Vanilli

On January 23, 2001, Dayton's postponed lip sync took place and it proved to be a success. Although there were only six acts, it was an exciting evening. Colby Tiss and Heather Shanley emceed the event. The first act was a rendition of the hit Destiny's child song, "Independent Women", by juniors Shany David, Michelle Kraemer, Julie Marx, Ziad Shehady, Rena Steinbach, and Megan Tavis. Lauren Brahm, Maria Zolatarsky, and Talia Zuberger surprised everybody by stripping to Right Said Fred's, "I'm Too Sexy". The third act, performed by juniors Tabatha Fishkin, Vangie Guilas, and Laurie Sherman was old school disco, The BeeGee's "Stayin' Alive", mixed into Wyclef Jean's 1997 version "We Trying to Stay Alive". One group of senior girls, including Rachel Mandel, Lillian Fasman, Tara Listowski, Christina Tomasino, Abby Victor, Linda Agostinelli, and Seveda Darknat, showed Halsey Hall their unique interpretation of a pop diva rivalry between Christina Aguilera and Britney Spears. The fifth act showcased Ahsley Belser, Kara Christmas, and Kamiesha Morgan performing "The Best of Me" by Jay-z. The night's last act was the other senior girls who performed "It's a Hard Knock Life" from Broadway's Hit, Annie. Their group consisted of Michelle Barone, Vickie Bingle, Christy Delloiacono, Lisa DeNicolò, Ashley King, Vicky Kozlenko, Illisa Nico, Ali Puliti, and Dana Rutkowski. Charlie's Angles was awarded third place, the Pop Diva Rivalry took second place and the Hard Knock Life orphans grabbed first place.

KING OF HEARTS

"It's raining men..."

On Thursday, February 15, 2001 some of the stylish guys at Dayton participated in the annual King of Hearts pageant. The show consisted of a casual, formal, and swimsuit contest, along with a talent competition. Throughout the night, the boys dazzled the audience with their charm and humor. The winner of the pageant was senior Russell Haywood. Following closely were senior Dara Mirjahangiry and junior Ryan Strome. Russell was gracious enough to give the audience a look at his fiery red speedo and white cut-off shorts. Other contestants were Anthony and Joe Rodriguez, Mike Grieco, Brian Demberger, Stephen King, Joe Iellimo, Chris Phillips, and Sam Battaglia. The pageant was so well known, even Britney Spears showed up to escort Brian Demberger.

MUSICAL THEATER "Memories Ignited"

"We didn't start the fire..."

Can you imagine having your memories and entire life destroyed too quickly to understand how it happened? Memories Ignited, a original musical production written, composed, produced, and directed by the Musical Theater class, tells the story of an elderly woman who reflects on her life while having to face her uncontrollable fate. The premise of the story follows Evelyn, an elderly woman, who relives her childhood and first love, along with other experiences that she and the rest of the people in the apartment building live through. After many months of preparation, the performers, directors, and stage crew were ready to display their production to an audience on Wednesday, January 31, 2001. Audience members raved about its touching story line and intensifying musical scores. With a cast of old and new faces, Memories Ignited turned out to be an impressive original production.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

"We don't need no education..."

This year, twenty-six members were inducted into the National Honor Society. This brings the total number of members to forty-eight. The students involved with this club are chosen on the basis of their leadership abilities and their grade point average. On being inducted into the NHS, Vangie Guilas said, "It was a very exciting event because being in this club is such an honor!" One of the functions of the NHS is to tutor other students in need of help in specific areas. The members participate in the Homework Club here at Dayton and also at the middle school. Mrs. Lamey, the advisor of the society, said, "This club gives our exceptional students a chance to be recognized." As Mrs. Lamey stated, being in the National Honor Society is a wonderful accomplishment and these students have been recognized and should be proud.

ART HONOR SOCIETY

"I see your true colors shining through..."

Each year, the National Art Educators Association publicly acknowledges a select number of students throughout the United States who have demonstrated the highest qualities in art scholarship, service, and character by creating chapters of the National Art Honor Society. This fall, a chapter has been established at Dayton, featuring many artistic students, thanks to the determination of Mrs. Delikaris.

Although the National Art Honor Society hasn't had too many meetings this year, they have remained productive. The NAHS participates in a number of art competitions which are primarily won by senior Vinny Chin, who has been drawing since he was of the tender year of five. Besides art competitions, other members of the club use their talents to create, sculptures abstracts, and artistic masterpieces on the walls of Dayton. We hope that the artistic underclassmen at Dayton will continue to represent our school in the future.

SEWING CLUB

"Living in a material world..."

The sewing club is the newest addition to Dayton's clubs. Mrs. Frese, who is the home economics teacher, is the new club advisor. This club was started in the beginning of the year and was founded by Dana Kowski, who happens to be president of the club as well. The purpose of the sewing club is to make clothing and blankets from the town's donations of needles, thread, and material and give it back to various charities.

The club has a very flexible time schedule and is open to beginners and experts. For a first year club, the sewing club made out very well.

QUIZ BOWL

"Anything you can do, I can do better..."

Are you smart enough to be a member of the Quiz Bowl Team? If so, then you probably spend your Friday nights working on math problems and memorizing the atomic weight of Boron.

While this may not be necessarily true, Mrs. Linda Axelrad and Mrs. Barbara Trueger guided the 2000-01 Quiz Bowl Team to several successful finishes in the statewide competitions. Seniors Alex Kramers, Michael Tratenberg, Sergey Khoroshevskiy, and Michael Lyubavin led the "A" Team to several victorious finishes. The "B" Team consisted of Seniors Lawrence Bluestone, Marc Eisenstein, Jonathan Zipkin and a large number of underclassmen, including Joe Petraccaro, Scott Hollander, Marsha Handeli, Jared Weisman, Dana Eisenberg, Jessica Goldblat, and Pamela Bookbinder. Since the categories were very diversified, every member's knowledge in certain fields was essential to the team's accomplishments.

To prepare for the contests, the members met almost every Tuesday morning in Senora's room, and enjoyed a combination of free bagels and challenging questions. Several key Quiz Bowl terms have become renowned among high school students, such as "Rebound," "Are you mocking me?" and "Bill Nye taught me that" (Don't ask about that one). In the Secaucus, Rutgers, and Columbia National Competitions, both Dayton teams ranked in the top-forty. If you want to join the Dayton team, just show up at Senora's room in the morning on Tuesdays.

MOCK TRIAL

"It wasn't me..."

This is the third year that Dayton has competed in the National Mock Trial competition, and the first year that we have been able to advance. The Mock Trial team consists of ten students who are coached by Senora Axelrad and Mrs. Trueger, and are assisted by Yale Greenspoon. Students use a prepared trial to design questions, statements, and strategies in order to enact a professional trial. Dayton students were thrilled to be able to advance into the third round of competition and defeat past rivals. "I was ecstatic to finally have our hard work pay off!" said mock trial participant, Jessica Goldblat. The students put a lot of time and effort into the trial, and it was a job well done.

YEARBOOK "Rewinding the Times" "Memories..."

The production of Dayton's yearbook is a year-round process involving upwards of forty students. Miss Schlesinger, the advisor, oversees the production staff and ensures deadlines are met, articles are written, and photographs are taken. Financial Advisor, Mrs. Franco, and editors Ashley King, Ilissa Nico, and Dana Rutkowski put in long hours to guarantee a successful 2001 yearbook. For the 2001 edition Jodi Santo and Scott Kessel raked in thousands of dollars in ad sales; their impressive efforts lowered costs and inspired others to sell advertising space. Students in yearbook classes learn layout design, newswriting, and how to crop and caption photos. Although yearbook is a serious class, the group-orientated lessons make this a popular elective. The lengthy process culminates with a 200 plus-page tribute to this year's graduating class, highlighting a year of school sports, events, clubs, and memories. When asked what the most challenging aspect of producing the yearbook is, Miss Schlesinger said, "Getting people motivated and organized to meet the required deadlines." As for the most rewarding part, "The entire creative process and seeing the final outcome definitely instills a sense of accomplishment."

omecoming, Penny Wars, Spirit Week, Interclass Games, and King of Hearts are just a few of the thoughts come to mind when we think "Student Council." Not only does Student Council provide the Jonathan Dayton student body with events that are both fun and memorable, but this hardworking group serves as a liaison between the students and the administration. With Ilissa Nico as President, Nicole Osit and Jaime Falkin as President, Vangie Guilas as Recording Secretary, Anthony Rodriguez as Corresponding Secretary, Dara Mahangiry as Treasurer, and Jonathan Zipkin as Board of Liaison, the 2000-2001 school year is ensured to be one that is nothing but great. "We really want to make this year one of the best years yet," said President Ilissa Nico. Student Council would not be possible if it wasn't for Advisor Mary Cokeing and all of the representatives and class officers. The Executive Board agrees that with all of the Student Council's hard work and dedication, this year has been a great success.

Rewinding THE TIMES

"We are the Champions..."

A big part of Jonathan Dayton High School is its athletic teams. Many of Dayton's students participate in one sport or another, ranging from tennis, to ice hockey, to gymnastics. Regardless of the sports played, students always seem to work hard and have fun at the same time. This formula usually leads to success.

FOOTBALL

"Hit me with your best shot..."

The Dayton 2000 Football Team didn't fair as well as they originally had hoped. The Dawgs lost many seniors last year and replaced them with only five this year. Co-captains Russell Haywood and Kahl Goforth, along with Greg DeAnglis, John Laurencelle, Altay Vigilante, and Junior Scott Hollander were all who were left from the 6-4 1999 Bulldawg team. This year, the football team faced many playoff contenders including Immaculata, New Providence, and North Plainfield and was confronted with many changes including the addition of Head Coach Kris Kohler. In addition to a new coach, many underclassmen were also given the opportunity to start.

Every game was played with energy and enthusiasm, even though they fell short of their goal with a 0-10 record. This record is sure to improve tremendously in the near future. "My four years on the team have gone by too fast, but they have taught me how to win and how to lose," states Russell Haywood. Good luck to the future Dawgs. We foresee playoffs for this young talented team in the near future. Special thanks to "Super" Joe Voorhees for all his help over the past 4 years.

FALL CHEERLEADING

"We've got spirit, yes we do..."

"Who Let the Dogs Out" blared in the background as Dayton's Fall Cheerleaders performed their amazing half-time dance. It took tons of practice and hard work before these girls were able to get their dance down.

Senior Captain Dana Rutkowski and fellow Senior Michelle Barone, led this year's varsity squad consisting of eighteen girls. After try-outs, when the final results were posted, the most common remark said by most students at J.D.H.S. were, "Freshmen on Varsity?" Although most high schools don't allow freshmen to try-out, our squad did benefit from this. Our squad is much louder. It also allows us to do more stunts, and it makes us look better than before.

With the help of the coaches, Mrs. Moscovitz and Mr. Addvensky, the squad worked hard to perfect their stunt dance moves, and developed new cheers. When it comes to putting pep in the crowd, Dayton has the best cheerleaders to do it. No matter who wins or loses, the cheerleaders manage to definitely win the hearts of the spectators.

BOYS SOCCER

"Kick start my heart..."

This year's Boys Soccer Team had a very impressive year. Lead by captains Carmine Santarella and D. Mirjahangiry, the 2000-2001 Jonathan Dayton Boys Soccer Team earned a record of 9-8-2. Captain Carmine Santarella was the team's top offensive player, scoring 20 goals and assisting on 9 goals. His performance earned him a "First Team All County" honor. Other seniors contributing to the team were Captain Dara Mirjahangiry, top defenseman Dario Ruggiero, and forwards Sergey Khoroshevskiy and Roman Lukiw. Also contributing to the team was senior goalie Jeff Stapfer, who averaged 8 saves a game. Junior Mo Abdelaziz, as well as underclassmen Mike Nittolo, Carlos Soto, Helmi Abdelaziz, and Luis Soto aided the team's success.

pretty intimidating, huh? The 2000 Soccer Team played rough this season, while having fun at the same time. As a young team eager to play better, the girls worked hard throughout the season to improve, if not for the team, for themselves. These driven girls, unfortunately, must say good-bye to some of their senior mentors; however, they learned a lot from them. As for the underclassmen soccer stars, they are determined to return next year to season with a vengeance.

CROSS COUNTRY

"I've been around the world..."

Is it true what they say about runners with big feet? "Yeah, they're bigger," answers Coach Kozub as he prepares his team for a big meet. Co-captain seniors Jonathan Zipkin and Cris Melendez led this year's boys team to a 7-3 record, and sophomores Tim Holmish and Jonathan Cottage made great improvements on their times from last season. The team finished third in the Conference Finals, but faced difficult competition from new opponents in the Valley Division.

Senior captain Lisa DeNicolo and juniors Julie Marx and Ilona Ring led the girls team. They also finished third in the Conference Finals this season and had a lot of fun. "The team sticks together and gets along well because of their great sense of humor," said Lisa. Everyone agrees that they're "like a family," and know how to "have fun while working at the same time."

With the cross-country course being a grueling 3.1 miles long, the team needed strong leadership and coaching to excel to victory. Boys coach Robert Kozub and girls coach William Byrne, respectively, trained their teams through tough practices of long distance and hard workouts to build strength and endurance. In the end, the teams' tremendous confidence, strives for improvement, and great sense of humor allowed them to have a great season, on and off the course.

VOLLEYBALL

"Hands up, baby hands up..."

This year's volleyball team has had a great time. Not only are they a dedicated bunch, but an enthusiastic one as well. The varsity and junior varsity team consisted of 17 girls 4 of which played junior varsity as well as varsity. The dedicated captains were Christina Florio, Tara Listowski, and Alphonsa Vada. Christina Florio commented, "Being that this is my last year, I am proud to be a captain."

Despite a few communication problems throughout the season, the girls' skills grew to become excellent. The varsity record was 4-13 and the junior varsity record was an excellent 10-7, thanks to the guidance of Coach Anthony Scarpelli. Although the varsity team's record was not as victorious as they had hoped, the enthusiasm and determination of the girls resulted in an enjoyable season.

GIRLS TENNIS

"Eye of the tiger..."

The Girls Tennis team had a smashing and exciting season, finishing with a 14-2 record. Through hard work and much practice over the summer, the girls were able to improve from their record of 8-7 last year. The results of the girls' off-season commitment was obvious through their improved skills.

Playing first singles was junior Rena Steinbach, while senior Rachel Mandel played second singles. A new addition, Karen Alberti, was the team's third singles player. First doubles consisted of seniors Lillian Fasman and Christy Delloiacono, while the second doubles players included Nicole Osit and sophomore Val Zlotsky.

Senior Rachel Mandel states, "With our minds set to having a great season and fighting with all our might, we are able to achieve an outstanding record and a great feeling of victory." For more than half the season, the tennis team was undefeated with their 13-0 record. Their 13-0 record took them into NJSIAA North Jersey, Section 2, Group 1 finals against Mountain Lakes. Although the girls lost, it was a close score with a 3-2 score. Senior Lillian Fasman says, "This loss was devastating because fourth doubles lost by just a few points. However, looking back, the season as a whole was wonderful."

Overall, the team achieved their goal of seating second in their Group 1 Section and fifth in the county. Coach Bill Prisco had a blast working with the team and was proud of his players' performances this season. He says, "The girls worked hard at achieving their success and they deserve such an insurmountable feeling of triumph. It was the eye of the tiger."

Not only did the girl's team enjoy their victory, but they also had fun socially. The girls developed friendships with one another, and team practices and bus-rides to other schools, were full of laughter and enthusiasm. Senior Christy Delloiacono states, "We made some memories this season that will never be forgotten."

The girls all feel that the season was a huge success. They agree that this incredible experience will always be remembered.

WINTER CHEERLEADING

"Who let the Dawgs out..."

Have you got that spirit? The Jonathan Dayton Cheerleaders definitely did this past basketball season. With 14 members on the squad, the cheerleaders were all pepped up with tons of spirit to share with the crowd. This past season's captains were seniors Michelle Barone and Jaime Falkin. The rest of the squad included juniors Laurie Sherman, Vangie Guilas, Heather Shanley, Melissa Luciabu and Jenn Lewis. Sophomores on the team included Jessica Friedman, Kristen Griffin, Jen Rego, Elena Rothspan, and Jaime Nevel. And last but definitely not least were freshmen Ashley Steiner and Christy Neumeister. The cheerleading team was led by Coach Moskowitz and Coach Amy. The cheerleaders served as positive encouragement for both the girls and boys basketball teams, as well as to the crowd. With tons of cheers and big, bright smiles, this squad helped to march the basketball teams onto victory!

SWIMMING

"Splish splash, I was taking a bath..."

The bulldogs swim team broke into the new millenium with a bang. Despite losing most of last year's teammates, the bulldogs finished with a winning record for the second straight year in a row. This year's team was led by Senior Captain Mitch Hollander and Junior Captain Bryan Demberger. The rest of the team included juniors Drew Decagna, Wojtek Mysliwiec, Garry Goldman, Roman Bronshteyn, Shany David, Monica Taylor, and Megan Micelli. The sophmores were John Cottage, Matt Stigliano, and Valerie Zlotsky and freshman swimmers included Nicole Greten, Raquel Mendez, Danielle Decagna, Christina Chonko, Danielle Gritanas, and Maria Micelli. This year's team had some outstanding performances. The boys team finished third place in the conference, coming one point shy of second place. Mitch Hollander, Bryan Demberger, Drew Decagna, and Garry Goldman were all multiple medal winners at the Mountain Valley Conference meet, while John Cottage received one medal. Another great performance was from Demberger who broke the nineteen-year-old butterfly record.

Coach Pinkava and Assistant Coach Mason were there every night to train the squad.

"I think we turned a lot of people's heads this year. We trained hard and had plenty of fun. You could see the improvements in our swimmers throughout the season," said coach Pinkava with a smile on her face.

Overall the Dayton swim team had one of their most successful seasons in years.

WRESTLING

"Let's get physical..."

The Dayton 2000-2001 wrestling team finished their season 13-12-1. This was exceptional for such a young team consisting of 8 freshman, 8 sophomores, 6 juniors, and 5 seniors.

Dayton's outstanding wrestlers this year were Altay Vigilante, Ryan Yospin, Marc Yospin, and Stefano Sarricino. Ryan Yospin finished his season by capturing second place in the Union County Wrestling Championships at 103 lbs. with a record of 15-8. Mark Yospin took 3rd place in the district at 112 lbs and finished his season 17-8.

Junior Stefano Sarricino finished his season with the team's best record of 28-1. Stefano took first place at both the Union County Wrestling Championship and District Tournament. Stefano says, "We could have done much better this year, but we had a young team. We'll definitely do much better with an older more experienced team next year."

Dayton's lone senior, Altay Vigilante, has wrestled varsity since freshman year. Altay finished this year's season 25-4. He took first place in the Union County Wrestling Championship and third place in the District in the 125 lbs. weight class. This year he was also named the "Outstanding Wrestler" in the Union County Wrestling Championships. Altay has been an asset to the team for the past four years and will surely be missed.

Next year's wrestling team hopes to dominate with hard work, experience, and dedication.

HOCKEY

"No easy way out..."

The Dayton Ice Hockey team had a great season this year. They began the season with a new coach, Todd Drevitch, coming in to help returning coach Peter Finkle. The Dawgs came into the season losing 6 seniors. With many intense practices the Dawgs worked hard as a team to improve their game. As each game approached, the team got mentally prepared for a victory. In the locker room before each game it was mentioned that "this is the biggest game of the season." It turned out that each game was.

The ice hockey team found themselves fighting for a home ice slot in the play-offs and for states. The team ended the season with 6-13-1 ranking 6 in the American C conference. The team was lead by Captains John Laurencelle and Adam Cohen. Leadership was also found in Brett Berger and Clay Boeninghaus. They set two new team records and came together as a team. Overall the Dayton Ice Hockey team had a very successful season.

BOYS BASKETBALL

"Slam...Let the boys be boys..."

Once again, Dayton's Boys Basketball Team got off to a phenomenal 9-1 start, winning the Tri-County Christmas Tournament for the second year in a row, beating Rahway in the first round, and later beating Union Catholic.

Tri-captain seniors, Jeff Stapfer, Carmine Santarella, and Dario Ruggiero contributed greatly to the Dawg's success. They recieved tournament MVP honors. Coach Berger said, "This team is different from many other teams in the past. Having eight seniors only strengthened our team because the seniors showed a lot of leadership both on and off the court."

Coach Petino said, "This is the last year of high school basketball for some of our players, and they made it a memorable one."

GIRLS BASKETBALL

"Bounce baby, bounce..."

The JDHS Girls Basketball team started the season with a phenomenal start putting together a record of 5 - 1. Their jumpshots, lay-ups, and fast break plays added to this year's success. These skills contributed to their rise to the top and achievement of 1st place in the Tri-County Christmas Tournament. However, many seniors this year contributed to the success of the entire team and they will be missed.

Linda Agostinelli, Tara Listowski, Dana Rutkowski, and Christina Tomasino will be greatly missed next year; however, the coach has an optimistic outlook for next year because of the extremely talented underclassmen. They are feared by their opponents and promise to uphold Dayton's Girls Basketball reputation. Dana Rutkowski predicts, "The team should have just as good a record as this year as long as they keep up the effort they put in."

WINTER TRACK

"Catch me, ... fast as you can, I'm running..."

The 2000-2001 Winter Track season had a good start. Even though the team was mostly inexperienced runners, everyone practiced hard and contributed to the team. Coaches Byrne, Cozza, Kozub and Prisco helped the team with their various events such as the 55meter dash, the 55meter hurdles, 400, 1600, 3200meter relay, shot put, and high-jump. This year, senior Olga Oksov placed first in both the County and Conference championships in high-jump. Marcia Hendeli and Olga Oksov also walked away with a first place medal at the County Relays at Elizabeth.

Coach Byrne looks forward to coaching his 28th season. "Although we have a lot of young runners, the team is improving tremendously. They are all dedicated, determined to do their best."

BOWLING

"Rollin', Rollin', Rollin'..."

If you are asking if the bowling team exists, the answer is "Yes"! Although the team only consists of two individuals, Allison Lau and Tine Hopson, it is well represented. Allison and Tine collaborate with Brearley students to compete against a variety of schools through out the central Jersey area. They usually bowl at

"Highway Bowling" in Union and are coached by Mr. McGowen. On occasion, the bowling team will celebrate their high scores over a couple of pizzas, which sometimes seems to be their favorite aspect of being on the bowling team. When asked what they do to prepare for bowling event, Tine claimed, "We do exercise and stretch our fingers."

BOYS TENNIS

"Great balls of fire..."

The Dayton Tennis Team was very excited to get back on the court this season to slaughter the opposition. From last year's 2000 Conference Championship, the 2000-2001 Dayton Tennis Team looked to go even farther this season. With losing only two seniors since last year's season, the team feels they still have the determination, skill, and capability to make it far in the state tournaments. According to captains Felix Mil and Chad Freundlich, the team has been successful in the past and will be successful in the future. Eager to get out on the courts, the boys planned on making it difficult for the rival teams to succeed. When all is said and done at the end of the season, the Boys Tennis Team hopes to defend the Conference Championship once again.

SOFTBALL

"Why don't you slide..."

The 2001 Varsity Softball Team is off to a great start! Thanks to many of the returning players and three new freshman starters, this team has the strength and dedication to make this season a successful one. With weeks of strenuous practices, the speed and accuracy of each player has increased greatly since last season. The whole team hopes for a winning season. "Our team has improved a great deal since last year and we are all hoping this season will be very successful," says right fielder Elissa Walters.

BASEBALL

"Take me out to the ballgame..."

The 2001 Dayton Baseball Team is starting off on a new foot, with 10 of last season's starters graduating, new coaches Mike Mundy, Rich Kennedy, and Joe Depari have their work cut out for them. The new leaders are a welcomed addition to the Dayton's coaching staff. They bring many years of experience, such as Coach Mundy's playing A-Baseball for the Colorado Rockies Organization. "The new coaches are excellent. They work us hard, but to see the outcome it's all worth it," says senior co-captain James Cariello.

This year's team is fairly young made up mostly of sophomores. They exert themselves to make up for experience they have not yet gained and hope to do so within the next season. Everyone on the team seems very optimistic and has a great attitude towards the game and each other. Though the DAWGS have a powerful presence on the field with key strong players it is a unified effort that makes them difficult to beat.

SPRING TRACK

"Runaway..."

Once again, Dayton's Spring Track Team had a great start to the season. The team, managed by Coach Byrne, who coaches the girls, and Coach Cozza, who manages the boys, along with Assistant Coaches Kindler, Huber, and Kozub, help the team train for the spring season.

Captains Dara Mirjahangiry, Russell Haywood, Olga Oksov, Nicole Nagger, Sara Abraham, and Scott Kessel help train the underclassmen as well. Along with the help from the captains, this year's team successfully competed against many of the best teams throughout the county and conference, scoring points along the way.

GOLF

"Green Acres is the place to be..."

The Dayton Golf Team, consisting of freshmen through seniors, is off to a great start! With the help of Coach Steinginga, the team has improved greatly as a whole, as well as individually, by cutting down on their strokes. "My goal is to at least get a whole-in-one every match," says Jay T. Weatherston.

Unfortunately, the team will be losing one of its great golfers, John Laurencelle, but the teams plans on recruiting the incoming freshmen for next season.

GYMNASTICS

"I tumble for ya..."

Gymnastics is a sport that requires great muscle strength and flexibility. The gymnastics team stills holds its practices and home meets at Brearley with Brearley gymnasts. Although Brearley is one of our main rivals, these girls manage to maintain a unique bond. "If the team were to meet at Dayton, then maybe more girls would want to participate," states Nicole Naggar.

Dayton girls who participate on the gymnastics team practice and compete in the following challenging categories: bars, beam, vault, and the floor exercise. "Trying not to get injured is one of our main goals, aside from winning," claims one of our finest Dayton gymnasts. Although the gymnastics team performed well this season, Dayton gymnasts would like to have more girls join the team next year.

Left: Senior Nicole Naggar and the Brearley gymnast on the left are really happy with their scores; however, the Brearley gymnast in the middle feels she could have performed better.

WEST SIDE STORY

"Maria, I just met a girl named Maria..."

The well-known musical West Side Story, performed on March 22nd, 23rd, and 24th, 2001 proved to be one of Dayton's huge successes. Dayton's talented cast helped to bring tragic love story to life on the stage of Halsey Hall. The show itself reflects a modern day Romeo and Juliet love story. The two gangs, the Jets, led by Riff (Keith Dworkin), and the Sharks, led by Bernardo (Josh Fraenkel), are constantly at war with each other. The Jets consist of Catherine Tuma, Melissa Loschaivo, Tabatha Fishkin, Madeline Kaplan, Sonye Mahgreteh, Manoh Finston, Alex Garlen, Chris Phillips, Jessica Goldblat, Matt Sauerhoff, and Lillian Fasman. Sharks include Ashley Steiner, Anthony DeNicolo, and "Super Joe" Voorhees. At the town dance, Maria, a Shark (played by Marnie Fish) catches the eye of Tony, a Jet (played by Jon Zipkin.) The only one who knows of their secret romance is Maria's best friend, Anita (Colby Tiss), who is also Bernardo's girlfriend. Maria's other friends, (Monica Schwartz, Jill Kurzner, Rachel Millman, and Jayme Sablosky), do not find out about the love affair until it is too late and by that time, Tony is already shot by Maria's former lover, Chino (Cris Melendez). Although West Side Story ends tragically, the play is quite lively and cheerful due to the entertaining songs and dance numbers. Thanks to the direction of Jennifer McCollum, musical coordination and direction of Tanya Boehme, and production of Ron Slate, West Side Story was a success.

Christian A. Ravelo

Since before you were born, I remember talking to your mom about having our first baby. We wanted a boy who could someday carry on the future of our family. We hoped that this little boy would make our family very proud, especially my father, your grandfather. Watching you grow through elementary and high school, I want to assure you that all our expectations have been realized. There are no words in any language to describe our pride in our Christian. All I can say is "Thank you for being such a wonderful son," and to wish you the best of luck in this important phase of your education. Congratulations, my son!

Love you, DAD

On one Saturday night on May 21, 1983, I gave birth to my first born whom I named, Christian A. Ravelo (a.k.a. Chris). That was the most wonderful day of my life. When I first held you in my arms, I knew you were the BEST THING that ever happened to me.

As you grew older, Chris, you became a wonderful, respectful, loyal, and honest young man. Thank you for being who you are. I am certain that you will achieve every goal you so desire. You are my pride and joy. The best of luck to you in your new beginning.

Love you, MOM

"My Brother and Me"

We have laughs, we have fights, and we have light in us that inspires us to be good. Even though sometimes we're unpleasant, we still will be good in a second. For love and games, good luck with college and I know you'll be very successful.

P.S. Enjoy college years and tell me all about it.

Love your sister, Ananda

We just wanted to tell you how proud we are of you and how confident we are that you are going to be the best that you can be in whatever you choose to do. Sky is the limit for special people like yourself to achieve all the goals that you want. You will always have a special place in our hearts and we will always be there for you.

Love you, Uncle Mike and Chury

Congratulations - graduation is the beginning of the rest of your life. I know that you will do great things and you will always be someone special who makes me proud.

Love, Shauna

Al llegar a esta etapa de tu vida, llegas a realizar una de tus grandes metas, la de graduarte de High School. Espero que mantengas muy en alto el deseo de realizarte como profesional. Este, es el gran desafío de tu vida y de antemano se que lo lograras para satisfaccion de todos.

Te quiere, Tia Gladys

I am really proud of you and happy I have a cousin like you to look up to for advice and everything. Good Luck!
Love, Mike

I am so proud of you. You have done so much in life and I know there is much to come. I love you and good luck!
Love, Tiffany

Que Dios te bendiga y te ilumine el camino para que puedas alcanzar todas las metas que te has propuesto, recibe las bendiciones de tu tia Daisy.

Dear Claudia,

Congratulations!
We're so proud of you. You have grown into a remarkable young woman. We're proud of your independence and your strong belief in making your own decisions and not to be a follower. High school has prepared you for what's ahead in the world and we trust that you will accomplish whatever you set your mind to.

As we send you off to college, we send with you our love and best wishes for a wonderful and successful experience. We're always here for you if you need us. Stay the way you are and always keep your faith in God. He will lead your way.

Love you always,
Mommy, Daddy, & Daniela

JOSHUA FRAENKEL

As the curtain comes down on your four years at Dayton, we eagerly anticipate what you will do for an encore. You have grown from the curly haired boy with the bounce in his step to the intelligent, confident, kind hearted young man you are today. We are proud to be your parents.

We wish you a lifetime of good health, happiness and success.

Believe in yourself as we believe in you. YOU CAN DO IT!!!

We love you, Mom & Dad

YOU HAVE BEEN A JOY TO US SINCE THE DAY YOU WERE BORN. JOSH, YOU ARE VERY SPECIAL, NOT JUST TO US, BUT TO ALL WHO KNOW YOU. WE HOPE THAT THE REST OF YOUR LIFE IS THE BEST OF YOUR LIFE, AND WE LOOK FORWARD TO SHARING IT WITH YOU.
LOVE, GRANDMA, POPPY & KAREN

Michael Mitchell

Congratulations, son, on your high school graduation. In case I haven't told you lately, I'm so very proud of you and the achievements you have made during your high school years. Mike, they say all good things must come to an end, and your stay at Jonathan Dayton High School is over. I hope your experiences, good and/or bad, have molded you into a man, a man who will work hard in life. Remember study, study until you are old, for a good education is better than silver or gold. Silver and gold will tarnish and fade, but a good education is here to stay. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and leaning not to your understanding, but in all your way acknowledge Him, so that He may direct your paths" (Proverbs 3:5-6).

I love you Mike,

▲ Gas prices soar across Europe. Heavy taxation policies in France and England cause massive protests and transportation blockades. Both governments eventually promise relief.

✓ The Millennium Bridge, a footbridge across the River Thames connecting London's St. Paul Cathedral with the Tate Modern Art Gallery, opens in June. It is the first bridge to be built over the Thames in 100 years.

▲ Former KGB agent Vladimir Putin is sworn into office as Russia's new president in May 2000, succeeding long-time leader Boris Yeltsin. Despite fears of an authoritarian style, Putin's public approval ratings remain high.

▲ Floods in Southeast Asia are caused by days of pounding rain. Millions are forced to leave their homes and more than a thousand people die in the region's worst flooding in decades.

▲ President Clinton travels to Southeast Asia in November to help mend relations between the United States and Vietnam. He is the first U.S. president to visit Vietnam since the end of the war in 1975.

▲ A cable car carrying skiers and snowboarders in Austria catches fire inside a tunnel, killing more than 150 people on board. It is the worst Alpine disaster in the country's history.

▲ Yugoslav President Slobodan Milosevic is ousted from office in October, ending 13 years of violent rule. Vojislav Kostunica becomes Yugoslavia's first democratically elected president.

✦ Australian street artists called "Strange Fruit" perform gravity-defying feats around the world. The performers float above the audience on 15-foot fiberglass poles.

President Clinton makes a last-ditch effort to broker a Middle East peace deal before his term ends in January 2001 by drafting a plan for leaders of both Israel and Palestine to review. Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak and Palestinian Yasser Arafat agree to review Clinton's proposal, but no deal is signed before month's end.

A Singapore Airlines jumbo jet crashes during takeoff in Taiwan, killing 81 of the 179 people on board. In a blinding rainstorm the pilot uses the wrong runway and collides with construction equipment.
